

Life is Changed

A mother's love
So easily lost
When lie after lie
Is just too much
The bond breaks
The ties are severed
Life is changed

A father's pride
A son's unfaltering loyalty
Create what was never there
An understanding
A respect
Life is changed

Three brothers
Two religions
Confusion
Animosity
What is right?
What is wrong?
Is it possible both
Neither
Life is changed

A sisters sense of forever
To die
But to never be forgotten
To be remembered
In the hearts and minds
Of those who know most
Who know best
Life is changed

A younger brother's smile
Rarely seen
Fills our space with love
The love once lost
Or forgotten
By betrayal
Now is back
With legs like tree roots
And hair as bright as
The smile that brought it back
Life is changed
